2) E-ven if I walk in dark-ness, I won't fear mishap nor grave,
Since with stick and rod con-so-ling, You're by me and I feel safe.
Be-fore foes you fill my table, Lots of oil you pour on me.
You fill my cup al-ways brim-full, Hap-pi-ness is what I'll see.

3) All my days I will be hap-py, Al-ways I'll live in your house,
I-ou-o's house, near my shep-herd, down to me he e-ven bows.
I-ou-o is now my shep-herd, A-ny need I'll see no more,
He leads me to peace in my heart, Death-chains a-part now he tore.
